

Post Holiday Checklist

Post Holiday Checklist

- Update your holiday card list and address book from cards received
- If you haven't photographed your decorated spaces and taped the pictures to the front of your storage containers, do so before you pack things up.
 - Each of my holiday décor storage tubs contains the items needed to create the scene that is taped to the box. It's so simple and cuts down on the amount of decisions I need to contemplate. After all, it's actually the millions of holiday decisions that wipe us out. Take those photos and give your brain a break next year.
- Throw away/ Recycle:
 - lights that don't work,
 - broken ornaments,
 - excess left over holiday cards you sent
 - Holiday books you don't read
- Donate:
 - gifts that you don't want,
 - holiday décor that did not get put up,
 - excess wrapping paper that you won't use

About Annie

Annie is a mother of two who has always loved everything about organizing. She used it as a coping mechanism while attending nursing school and put her talents into practice when she needed to contend with masses of paperwork as a Critical Care Nurse.

Annie uses her assessment, communication, and planning skills to develop a Critical Care Plan to conquer clutter. Her passion and knowledge has turned many homes and offices into beautiful, functional spaces! She prides herself on her ability to use the items her clients already possess to create functional, attractive organizational systems. Any unwanted items she removes from her clients' homes are properly disposed of, or recycled. All donations are taken to local charities where they can be claimed by someone in need.

With several qualifications under her belt, Annie brings her years of experience to help you bring order and peace to your life. She continues to stay on top of the latest developments.
